After passing north of the mouth of Piney Branch the boundaries are far enough from the creek to afford seclusion until we come in sight of the bridge at Pierce mill. Here on the west side of the creek the boundary passes directly through a beautiful meadow, dividing it in half, and building operations are now going on in plain view from the creek drive. At the mouth of Broad branch conditions are still more unfortunate. A person standing on the bridge at this point can hold the end of a hundred-foot line and toss the other end into private property. All of the high bank south of the Broad Branch road can be changed in character at the will of the owner. Passing further along the creek we come to the former ocation of Blagden mill. Philadelphia Money Makers Busy Supplying Deficiency.

PHILADELPHIA, December 6 .- Every later in the day. effort is being made at the Philadelphia mint to make up the shortage of small coins, which has been felt throughout the country. The force of 350 employed there are working day and night. Last month's figures show that the holiday gift-giving spirit figures largely in the increased coinage. The mint during November coined $3. 225,000 in double eagles, $1,290,000 in eagles, $390,000 in half eagles, and $175.

Rev. Joseph M. M. Gray, pastor of East Baltimore Methodist Episcopal Church, was today officially informed by Bishop dwelling in plain view. ## First Annual Midwinter Sale of Ladies' Suits.

In accordance with our policy of being in advance of other stores in showing new styles, we shall hold our annual Midwinter Suit Sale in December instead of the usual month of January. This being our first midwinter sale, we are naturally anxious to make it a success, so we are making extremely liberal reductions all along the line. When you take into consideration the earliness of the season, the individuality of our styles and the class of goods offered in this sale you will realize what a momentous opportunity it is.

Every Lady's and Misses' Suit in stock is reduced, including fall styles, winter styles and even some advance spring styles that we are showing. Every garment is of all-wool texture, man-tailored throughout, and even at the reduced prices we guarantee an absolutely satisfactory fit. Needless for us to point out the advisability of an early selection when there are so many suits of individual style.
